

U.S. CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

The U.S. Chamber of Commerce in Washington, D.C. has made resources, guidance, and information available for American businesses and workers.

- To access the U.S. Chamber's Coronavirus Response Toolkit, click HERE.
- To access the U.S. Chamber's Resilience in a Box portal, offering preparedness tips and information about best practices for small business, click HERE.
- To see the U.S. Chamber's Coronavirus Guidance for Employers, click HERE.
- To see the U.S. Chamber's Workplace Tips for Employees, click HERE.

In addition, the U.S. Chamber of Commerce Foundation has also created a Disaster Help Desk for Business - an information concierge to assist small businesses with disaster readiness, relief and long-term recovery. You can reach the help desk either ONLINE or by dialing 888-MY-BIZ-HELP or sending a message to BizHelpdesk@uschamber.com.

For additional information, including updates on the U.S. Chamber's Congressional advocacy during this time, visit their Coronavirus website.